

S4 – PRACTICAL EMERGENCY MANAGEMENT FOR NEW IMT TEAM MEMBERS

COURSE OVERVIEW

Duration : a 2-day course

Purpose: To train delegates to become level 2 (IMT) support team members in accordance with current best practice and national guidelines It teaches core skills, best practices and key expectations, a 'must do' course for all IMT team members..

Who should attend:

This Practical Emergency Management course is for recent additions or new personnel in a level 2 IMT response team. For example; new level 2 Incident management or emergency management team members

COURSE CONTENT

Aim - To teach skill, knowledge and start to build experience to become effective as an Incident Management Team member

Outline Contents

Key content covered on this course includes, but is not limited to:

- Emergency response and incident management best practices
- UK (Country specific) civil contingencies and responders *
- Functional responsibility of an organisation
- Key roles and responsibilities of IMT team members
- Humanitarian issues
- Decision making
- Information management
- Team dynamics
- COMAH/SEVESO/NCEMA requirements, major incident and stakeholder expectations *
- Communications and stakeholder management *
- Effective resource management and communications
- Stress identification and management

* We can deliver a bespoke course to reflect your organisation, at an additional cost.

COURSE LOCATION

Unit 5, Brunel House, Heather Lane, Hathersage, Derbyshire. UK S32 1DP

This course can also be delivered at your location and the information and scenarios tailored to your organisation, site and specific hazards, please ask for more details.

opportunities@responseacademy.co.uk - 01433659800